Pursuant to Baltimore City Code Article 31, [subtitle 10]

- No person may willfully: falsify, conceal, or cover up any material fact; or submit any writing or document knowing that it contains a false or misleading statement or entry.
- No person may fraudulently obtain, keep, or attempt to obtain or keep a permit.
- No person may: copy, create, or otherwise produce any counterfeit or facsimile of a residential area parking permit; or alter any permit issued under this subtitle to change its expiration date or any condition of its use.
- No person may display in any vehicle: any counterfeit or facsimile of a residential area parking permit; any permit altered to change its expiration date or any condition of its use; or a residential parking permit that has expired or is otherwise void.
- No person may: charge any fee for the use of a visitor's permit; allow another to use a visitor's permit in violation of any rule or regulation governing the use of visitors' permits.
- No landlord or other person may, directly or indirectly, require a tenant or other resident of a dwelling to allow the landlord or other person to use or control any permit issued to the tenant or other resident.
- No person may knowingly aid another in violating the above.
- The Parking Authority may suspend or revoke, as the circumstances warrant, all permits issued to or for the benefit of: any person who violates any prohibited conduct and all members of that person's household.
- If a motor vehicle is found unattended, locked, and parked in violation, using invalid permits, the vehicle may be immobilized pending surrender of the invalid permit.
- Release of vehicle occurs only after payment of the booting fee and other (accrued) charges are paid and the permit surrendered to the Parking Authority.
- In addition to any other civil or criminal remedy or enforcement procedure, Article 31, subtitle 10 may be enforced by issuance of a civil citation under City Code Article 1, Subtitle 41 {"Civil Citations"}.
- Any person who violates any provision of Article 31, subtitle 10 is guilty of a misdemeanor and, on conviction, is subject to fine of not more than $1,000 or to both fine and imprisonment for each offense.
